The annual Cotati Accordion Festival will be back at La Plaza Park in Cotati, CA on August 19 & 20, 2023. In our July issue of the Newsletter, we published an initial list of the performers in alphabetical order over the 2 days. In this issue (page 2) we have published the final complete schedule, with hyperlinks to each of the players.

Most years the SFAC is well-represented by many of its members attending this one-of-a-kind accordion festival. As soon we enter the park grounds it feels as though we had never left the previous year, such is the overwhelming feeling of continuity and community!

As usual, we will have an SFAC canopy toward the back of the park, where our members and fellow-travelers can hang out, mingle with passerby, and generally take the opportunity to let this large gathering know about the SFAC. Oh, you can even play the accordion there!

We are very proud of our rich history, ongoing musical programs, and our commitment to propagating and supporting accordion culture best we can. We will have oodles of sheet music and accordion-themed figurines for you to make your own - make sure to stop by!

The 2023 Cotati Accordion Festival presents the annual STUDENT SCHOLARSHIP FUNDRAISER CONCERT

A FREE FRIDAY EVENT featuring:
Mike Zampiceni, Paul Betkin, and Lou Jacklich performing with Colette Ogata

Our participation in Cotati actually begins on Friday evening at Church of the Oaks Social Hall, 175 Page Street in Cotati. The annual Student Scholarship Fundraiser Concert will take place from 4-6PM. It is a free event, but it is also a fundraiser for the Future Accordion Stars. You may donate at the door or online at <http://www.cotatifest.com/>. This year, we are delighted to have Club members Mike Zampiceni, Colette Ogata, and Lou Jacklich performing. They will be joined by our good friend and master jazz accordionist Paul Betken.

Maestro Lou Jacklich at Cibo Rustico, 2021

For after-hours fun and good food during the Cotati Accordion Festival on day 1 (Saturday, August 19), head north down the road to Cibo Rustico Pizzeria, 1305 Cleveland Ave., in Santa Rosa. Starting at 6:00 PM there will be several accordion stars performing. Accordionists lined up so far include Steve Albini, Lou Jacklich, Paul Betken, Cory Pesaturo, and Dave Albini. The restaurant stops serving its delicious thin-crust wood-fired pizza and Italian food at 9 PM. Steve Albini is coordinating the event. Two years ago, Lou Jacklich and some of his students had a blast at Cibo Rustico. See you there!

Accordions Usher in SF Giants at Italian Heritage Night

Pamela Tom

A trio of some of San Francisco Bay Area's premier performing accordion musicians (Steve Albini, Ron Borelli and Ron Sfarzo) was the featured pre-game entertainment at the San Francisco Giants game at Oracle Park during Italian Heritage Night on July 25, 2023.

The accordionists initially performed for 30 minutes at the Willie Mays gate entrance with familiar Italian tunes: Quando, Quando, Quando; Al Di La; La Campagnola; Chitarra Romana; Guaglione, and Tarantella. On the field, the Balliamo! Italian folk dance group of Sacramento danced with their ribboned tambourines and folk costumes to the mandolin sounds of Funiculi Funicula. Then the trio was projected on Oracle Park's giant 4K video screen, so that 40,000+ fans could see and hear the accordionists performing Marina on their assorted Roland accordions, with Steve Albini's spirited voice resonating throughout the arena. Soprano Maria Fassio Pignati beautifully sang The Star-Spangled Banner. Fast-forward to the end of the game and hooray ... the Giants bested the Oakland A's by a score of 2 to 1! It was a fantastic opportunity for Steve Albini, Ron Borelli and Ron Sfarzo to showcase their talent and be accordion ambassadors with San Francisco's official instrument!

For an unedited video sample of the trio performing Marina videotaped by a Giants fan visit: https://youtu.be/sFSO9EPARGA?t=192

Ron Borelli Plays 10th Gig at Giants Home Game

SFAC member, Ron Borelli (Piano, Accordion and Orchestra), is a multi-talented San Francisco Bay area musician. He has worn many hats at SF Giants home games over the past decade and played various roles as soloist or accompanist to assorted combinations of instrumental groups and vocalists. If you want a solo accordionist, piano/keyboard artist, small combo, 5-piece band or 20-piece dance-band, Ron and his associates deliver a great musical experience in listening and dancing pleasure!

SFAC Annual Picnic, July 2023

Those lazy hazy days of August are upon us now, but it was bright and sunny at the July, 2023 annual SF Accordion Club picnic. What a great turn out we had, as you see in the group photo where everyone is seen avoiding the sun under the beautiful redwood trees. We are pleased to report that attendance has grown in the three years since this tradition was re-instituted.

Good food was shared, including the tastiest carrot cake in town (from Draeger's Market) in celebration of 3 important birthdays: Lou Jacklich, Ed Massolo & Joseph Martin.

A large fresh fruit bowl, compliments to Jane (Ken's wife) for doing so much preparation work. Fried chicken, Chinese egg rolls, homegrown tomatoes, hummus and crackers, quiche and more treats than necessary were generously made available. So thanks, everybody!

Of course, what's an accordion picnic without music?! We had young and not-so-young play - Annabelle & Juni had their turn, and Lou Jacklich held court and led several others with great style. Joseph Martin and Tseli Wu, each of whom had been working on a song independently of each other, played it as a duet. Another impromptu duet surprise featured Anand Joseph and Ken Schwartz - what fun! We heard from youngster Colin Kennedy, who improves every year. Scott Anderson was in strolling mode for all to enjoy his music. We were so happy to see Barbara Winters, whom we've seen less of since the Club left the Oyster Point Yacht Club venue. She brought a box of sheet music to share, pretty cool! A new-comer in our midst, Sergey Pestretsov, played a Russian Bayan-style accordion, sounding great. We sure hope to see him again soon! Sergey Turchyn treated us to a number or two as well.

Thanks to those of you who came to the picnic and for being part of the SFAC organization. Your smiling faces AND accordion music make it worth the effort to host events such as these. It's an annual picnic, so we'll do it all over again next July!

ATG turns Hyatt Regency Lisle into center of accordion world!

By Paul Cain

This past July, in a sleepy suburb near Chicago, accordion players from around the globe descended upon the Hyatt Regency Lisle hotel, their presence transforming it, even if for just a few days, into the center of the accordion world.

As a member of the Accordionists and Teachers Guild, July is always circled in RED on my calendar. That's when I join my international accordion friends for seminars, workshops, student competitions and virtuoso performances.

Concerts were held over a 3-day period at nearby Wheaton College. This year, the festival orchestra (pictured below) was 45 members strong and featured ATG members from all over the US, Canada, Germany, Italy, Austria, Switzerland, Australia, New Zealand and China. They performed accordion arrangements of ABBA tunes, Star Trek themes, Star Wars themes and a medley from Phantom of the Opera! We also heard several new works for accordion, the UMKC accordion ensemble, and headliner performances by Cory Pesaturo, Grayson Masefield and Stas Venglevski. As an added bonus, there was a traveling group from the French Island of Reunion, near Madagascar. Orchestra Polyphonia featured 65 musicians, almost all of them high school girls, speaking French and sporting accordions! Didn't see that one coming!

Highlights from this year's festival will be up on ATG's YouTube channel shortly. Next year's festival will be in Kansas City, Missouri. I hear it's lovely there in July!

Membership Report, Robert Cooperstein

Please join me in welcoming our newest member, Lorraine Inaudi of Redwood City. Thanks for joining us, Lorraine!

Our first letter inviting SFAC members to renew for the 2023-4 membership year will be sent out early in September. If you have a chance, renew online via PayPal or credit card at any time before then, it will certainly make things easier for us: less paper-shuffling, less expense, less work at the post office. You will see an updated version of the link pictured at right on our webpage, www.sfaccordionclub.com.

A screenshot of a membership renewal form. The form is titled "Join or renew for 2022-23 here". It includes a dropdown menu for "with online (email) newsletter discount $30.00 USD". Below that, it asks "New member or Renewing?" and has a dropdown menu for "2022-23 Membership Renewal". There are input fields for "Member name(s)" and "Email address". A yellow "Pay Now" button is prominently displayed. At the bottom, there are logos for VISA, Mastercard, American Express, and Discover.

New York City's Evolution of the Accordion Festival at Bryant Park

Since 2011 the free outdoor Bryant Park Accordion Festival has been one of several summer outdoor Bryant Park Picnic performances supported by the Bank of America. The festival has undergone varying name changes and formats. Ariana Hellerman became the founder and curated of "Accordions Around the World in Bryant Park" in 2013 and created a new title, schedule and format for the accordion performances. There were 20 accordionists and an assortment of instruments from the family of accordions. Harmoniums, button-boxes, bandoneons and more convened to showcase throughout the park the multitude of genres that the accordion is linked with. AAW emphasis is on folk and genres like bachata, Balkan, Cajun, classical, cumbia, forró, jazz, klezmer, Middle Eastern, musette, pop, qawwali, rock, tango, tarantella, vallenato, zydeco, and more. The extended evenings included an "Accordion Jam and Dance Parties" theme that featured Eastern European wedding music (June), a Northern Brazilian hoe down (July) and the American Accordion Association celebrating its 75th anniversary (August) with more accordionists and bands in the park until 10 PM.

By 2014, accordionists participated weekly from 5:00 – 7:15 PM in AAW throughout the park. During 2015 the accordionists were performing weekly from July to August, 6:00 – 8:00 PM throughout the park. There was a double performance during the last week of August with a special event, "Accordion Bands Festival" from 4:30 – 10:00 PM!

There was a 2-year hiatus of Picnic in the Park due to Covid-19. In 2022 the Accordion Festival returned to Bryant Park Picnic Performances and was video streamed on YouTube. The nearly 3-hr performance highlighting music of Afghanistan, Ukraine, and Mexico can be viewed at: <https://www.youtube.com/live/hyXsl-ChReQ>. This year the AAW was also compressed to three hours in one evening, August 25, 2023 from 7-10 PM. This year's summer-wide Picnic in the Park schedule is at: <https://bryantpark.org/activities/picnic-performances>.
